Chapter 2 by Zoe Requena

It couldn't be, I thought. Slowly leaning in to see, the "corpse" of one of the victims. Nobody knew who he was, but how? In this small village where everybody knew everyone? I always saw things no one could. But this, this was different. When the shootings happned, I saw him, the boy, falling from the sky. I saw he had wings... Suddenly with no warning the boy opned his eyes - Hello Jessica- he said. His voice, the voice of an angel. -H-h-how do you know my name?- I asked him with marked fear in my voice. -I fell for you, how couldn't I know your name?- He gave me a smirk. He has beautiful. His smile gave me chills. It was even more uncomfortable since I took his shirt off to see the bullet wound more clearly. He his body was a work of art. I didn't notice the black wings until he touched his face. Before, I ask you more important questions. I asked his eyes. What's your name? He stroked my hair.
